

Company profile

Meerkat Recruitment is a proudly South African Recruitment company, focusing on all levels of Management. Our website has information pertaining to interview advice and available roles – www.meerkatrecruitment.co.za

Our Mission

To continually provide a professional, comprehensive and outstanding service to all our clients and candidates.

Our Vision

Through our passionate, dedicated and committed team, we aim to be the best recruitment company in South Africa, always remembering that our clients and candidates are number one.

We follow the "love what you do" approach and therefore strive to ensure that the candidate becomes an asset to a client's business and fits the relevant culture. We will continually build, maintain and nurture solid business relationships, through regular personal contact and effective communication.

We partner with our clients throughout South Africa and sub-Saharan Africa, to deliver customised, value-based services and solutions by understanding and listening to exactly what is needed to adequately fill a role.

Our team is committed to working hard to produce the desired results. By the same token we believe in having fun and enjoying our work. We also pride ourselves in reaching out to the community at large.

Company values

To give the best service and exercise the utmost care in all that we do

We are only in business because of our clients, candidates and team members.

Professionalism

We uphold, integrity, dependability, responsibility, accountability, reliability and take pride in our appearance.

Our valuable team

We are supportive, respectful, effective, accurate, proactive, passionate and fun loving.

Community and environment

We give, contribute, protect and help whenever possible.

Personal development

We are innovative, flexible and constantly strive to better ourselves as a team

